COURSE IN DETAIL

Prerequisites

Persons eligible for the SafeWork NSW HSR Refresher course are to have completed the five day SafeWork NSW course for HSRs and be elected to represent a workgroup under the WHS legislation. A HSR who has undertaken the refresher course will be taken to have undergone the initial training prescribed by the NSW WHS Regulations referred to in section 72(1) for the purposes of issuing a direction to cease unsafe work under section 85 and issuing a provisional improvement notice under section 90 of the WHS Act (see sections 85(6)(a) and 90(4)(a)).

Course Aim

The aims of this course are to provide HSRs and deputy HSRs, elected under the new WHS legislation, with information and skills relating to:

- The WHS legislative framework and key terminology;
- Duties of various stakeholders that can influence work health and safety;
- Enforcement measures available for breaches of WHS legislation;
- The roles of unions and WHS entry permit holders under the WHS Act;
- Requirements for consultation, representation and participation on work health and safety issues in the workplace;
- The role of Health and Safety Representatives (HSRs), Health and Safety Committee (HSCs) and other authorised representatives; and
- HSR's powers including the issuing of PINs and directing the ceasing of unsafe work.

Certification

On successful completion of the course, participants will receive a SafeWork NSW (previously WorkCover) Approved Certificate of Attendance verifying the completion of the HSR Refresher course, which will be issued by the approved trainer or RTO.
